CPD modules

To provide you with a bit more information about CPD modules specifically, they aren't an advertorial as such, but rather viewed as sponsored technical content, i.e. the credibility rests upon the technical quality of what is produced - heightening your profile by association. Members are required to complete a certain amount of CPD each year which is reported to the Institution and CPD modules form a valuable part of this.

They provide the perfect way for you to share your technical insights with members and communicate the technical capabilities of your products and services, offering:

- profile raising and 'lead generation' opportunities, sitting alongside The Structural Engineer's high value technical content, your CPD module will enable you to gain exposure in The Structural Engineer in print and online
- association with the delivery of high value learning content
- increased awareness of

- your brand and product
- real leads in the form of the contact details of those completing the CPD module and consenting to receiving further information from you.

By authoring a CPD module you receive:

- sponsorship of a CPD module in The Structural Engineer (including up to four pages of copy/images including questionnaire) in one issue
- 'Supplied and sponsored by' and logo on first page of module
- access to data of individuals completing the CPD module (subject to GDPR opt-in)

Solus emails

Target the highest quality database of structural engineers by sending them a dedicated email, created by you.

As these emails are in such high demand, there are limited slots available each year.

As you are directly reaching the inboxes of members, solus emails are very effective for sharing information from your organisation and are a hugely successful lead generation tool, for promoting events, or downloads such as a white paper.
